Faculty Development Program on "Recent Advancements and Challenges in IT"

Date: 08th – 12th March 2021

Mode- Online   Total Participants: 72

Department of Information Technology hasorganized a one-week FacultyDevelopment Programmeon "RecentAdvancements and Challenges in IT". TheFDP provides an opportunity tohighlight recent trends and development in the fieldof Research.It will further give impetus to theparticipants towards bringing out newer andefficient techniques. The experts from prestigiousuniversities (NIT's, GGSIPU, Thapar University, DCRUST, and NSUT) and Industries (TCS, SopraSteria Pvt. Ltd, etc.) delivered expert talksand practical demonstrations in the FDP.Some of the highlighted topics in FDP are:

1. AI & Robotics
2. Evolution of Smart Cities
3. The Way forward with Artificial Intelligence
4. Application of IoT in Agriculture Sector
5. Internet of Things
6. Cloud Computing: Research Issues and its role in Various Applications
7. Evolution of Modern IT and Impact during Pandemics

Atotal of 72 participants from MSIT as well as other colleges (MSI, HMRITM, BPIT, MVSIT,etc.) are benefited as they found a forum to exchange views, ideas, and the latest innovations in the field of Information Technology.

Coordinator- Ms. Sonika Malik (IT Deptt, MSIT)