

Maharaja Surajmal Institute of Technology, New Delhi-110058

Department of Information Technology

Seminar Report

S.no.	Index
1	Topic Name	How to build a good vocabulary
2	Name of the Expert	Mr. Sunil Dua
3	Mode, Date and Time	Offline, 26th May,2023, 11:00-12:00
4	Target Audience	IT department
5	Organized by	DR. Sonika Malik, MS. Preeti Rathee

An exclusive and informative seminar session was organised for IT department under the guidance of DR. Sonika Malik (Assistant professor), Ms Preeti Rathee(Assistant professor). This was a seminar on “How to build a good vocabulary”. Indicating There is no time, age or place to improve vocabulary.

Delivered by the Hon’ble guest Speaker, Sunil Dua who is a Senior Regional Head in T.I.M.E Education.

The Seminar started at 11:00 am on May 26th as scheduled and went for one hour.

The students learned a lot over the session, and the discussion was lively.

The session went over the topic of importance of good vocabulary in every aspect of life and finding out the meaning of words by dividing it into small parts. Overall, the session went successfully with interest of students.

Mr. Sunil showed the importance of the topic with the help of images, examples and sentences.

Generated the interest of many students and motivating the students to work on their communication skills.

Showed various examples like cadaverous, that means very thin especially from disease, hunger or cold.

Caught interest in the session.